Jay Chenault, a 10-year "veteran" of the Huntsville Amateur Hockey Association, recently took home two second-place awards in the Ace Bailey Children's Foundation "Got Skills Competition" at the Southern Ice Palace in Nashville.

The 12-year-old, who has been playing hockey at HAHA since the age of 3, placed second overall in the Southeast-Region-House/Select event by finishing second in Hardest Shot (44 mph), second in Shootout, third in Fastest Skater and fourth in Shooting Accuracy. He was competing in the Pee Wee division.
